REPORT ON FOOD DISTRIBUTION EVENT(05-07-2021)

Nutrition from food is the major part of our health. It bulids our immune system and makes us healthy. During this pandemic era, proper nutrition is the major requirement for the society. But, this pandemic also caused a worst situation to the people of India where they could not afford their daily meals.

Apart of this, the major necessity of nutrition now is for children and pregnant women. Seeking the needy of them, the NSS volunteers of UCW came up with a initiation to help the needy to some extent.

All the volunteers of UCW raised funds according to their financial status. Many volunteers have participated in raising funds to the poor . This raising of funds was done with the help of online money transfer applications (gpay, phonepe etc) without physical contact. This process was done by immense care by third year volunteers .

The event was held on 05.07.2021 i.e, on MONDAY.This event is took place at GOVT. MATERNITY HOSPITAL, KOTI. Approximately, 15 volunteers participated in distribution process including first year, second and third year volunteers. The donation included bread packets and bananas. Bread and bananas were donated only to the needy people i.e, pregnant women, children, patients, poor people.
